

Letter of Acceptance and Commitment
11th International Choral Festival
“Voices from the Middle of the World” – Ecuador

I, _____,
holder of ID or identification document No. _____,
in my capacity as Director or Representative of the choir
_____,
from the country _____,

Having carefully read the terms, conditions, and guidelines established in the official brochure of the International Choral Festival “Voces desde la Mitad del Mundo,” I fully accept and understand the information regarding:

- Festival specifications
- Dates and activities
- Participation fees and modalities
- General logistics and organizational commitments

Likewise, I declare that all my questions and concerns have been duly addressed by the festival organization, and that I have no pending observations regarding the information received.

In my role as the official representative responsible for the choir I direct or represent, I assume full responsibility for its participation in the festival, including compliance with schedules, artistic requirements, internal protocols, coexistence rules, and logistical guidelines established by the organization.

I declare that I understand and accept that:

1. Participation in the festival is voluntary, and acceptance implies full compliance with the established conditions.
2. The choir I represent commits to respecting the defined program, as well as any adjustments communicated in advance by the organizing team.
3. I authorize the festival organization to use audiovisual material recorded during participation for cultural dissemination purposes and on a non-profit basis.

Finally, I reaffirm my formal commitment to participate in the festival, following the principles of respect, cooperation, and cordiality that characterize this international gathering.
